Michael Ye, Vice President of DLSP

Michael Ye is currently the VP of DLSP Co., Ltd, responsible for providing consulting and total solutions to IT and relevant companies in setting up their offshore and outsourcing operations in PRC. Before that, he was the Government Relations & Software Park Director of Software & Services Group, Intel Corporation, mainly responsible for establishing good relations with local government and implementing cooperation programs with local government. and hi-tech parks on the IT and software side with the support and endorsement from government. He joined Intel in April, 2006. Before that, Michael Ye was Director of Business Solutions, Dalian Software Park Co., Ltd, which is running the most established ITO and BPO center in China. He was mainly responsible for making the corporate strategic planning, sales & marketing operation, establishing & maintaining cooperation relations with government. He joined Dalian Software Park Company in 2001. Michael Ye graduated from the Department of International Economics, University of International Relations.