

Mr Xidelong Guo

Independent Advisor

Mr Xidelong Guo, currently working as an independent advisor, supporting several non-governmental organizations and projects on developing their sustainable finance related strategies and implementation plans. Prior to this work, he worked as the head of Corporate and Supply Chain department at Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP) China, developing climate and energy transition strategies and tactics including, providing policy advocacy and technical support to policy makers, promoting Chinese companies for a higher quality environmental climate -related information disclosure consistent with the requirements of the TCFD framework, and building capacities to investors in for aligning their portfolios to the Paris Agreement pathway. Besides, Mr Guo worked as a Climate/ESG investment specialist at Greenpeace EastAsia, and as a consultant on Sustainability on Emerging Market Project at Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH and at PwC.