

Ms Yiqi Zhou

Senior Manager of Partner Relations and Cooperation, Sino-German Center for Sustainable Development, Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

Ms Yiqi Zhou works for GIZ as Senior Manager of Partner Relations and Cooperation in the Sino-German Center for Sustainable Development, a joint initiative by German and Chinese governments to contribute to the sustainable development goals of the Agenda 2030 in third party countries and globally. In this context she is responsible for engaging partners from government, business, research and academia for policy dialogue, triangular projects and improvement of business practices. Ms Zhou also manages topics of sustainable infrastructure, digital economy, and circular economy in China for a global project Emerging Markets Sustainable Dialogues. Before joining GIZ in 2014, she was Senior Manager of China ICT Industry CSR Pilot Programme of the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology. Starting her professional career as international news Journalist and Editor at China Youth Daily, Ms Zhou also previously worked for the Beijing Organizing Committee for the 29th Olympic Games and the Insurance Society of China.